BEFORE THE VIRGINIA STATE BAR DISCIPLINARY BOARD

IN THE MATTER OF CHUNG SUK OH

VSB Docket No. 21-052-121267

AFFIDAVIT DECLARING CONSENT TO REVOCATION

I, Chung Suk Oh, after being duly sworn, state as follows:

1. I was licensed to practice law in the Commonwealth of Virginia on February 15, 2012.
2. I submit this Affidavit Declaring Consent to Revocation pursuant to Rule of Court, Part 6, Section IV, Paragraph 13-28.
3. My consent to revocation is freely and voluntarily rendered. I am not being subjected to coercion or duress, and I am fully aware of the implications of consenting to the revocation of my license to practice law in the Commonwealth of Virginia.
4. I am aware that there is currently pending an investigation into allegations of misconduct, the docket number(s) for which is set forth above, and the specific nature of which is here set forth:

On October 28, 2020, the Virginia State Bar Disciplinary Board entered an order suspending my license to practice law for 90 days. The order was the result of an agreed disposition. The suspension was effective as of October 28, 2020.

On November 2, 2020, I appeared in the Circuit Court for Fairfax County, Virginia as defense counsel in a criminal matter. I did not advise the court or the prosecutor that my license was suspended. I told the prosecutor that I was not available to try my client's case until February 2021 because I was too busy handling matters for other clients. While in court on November 2, 2020, I signed a waiver of jury trial and discovery order as defense counsel.

5. I acknowledge that the material facts upon which the allegations of misconduct are predicated are true.

6. I submit this Affidavit and consent to the revocation of my license to practice law in the Commonwealth of Virginia I know that if the disciplinary proceedings based on the alleged misconduct were brought or prosecuted to a conclusion, I could not successfully defend them.

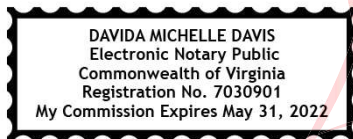

Executed and dated on 03/25/2021.
